

Step 3 – DBE and Set-Aside (continued)

When does the DBE program does not apply? There are several exceptions.

- Purchase or contract valued at $15,000 or less.
- Real estate transactions.
- Resolution of legal claims.
- Cooperative endeavor agreement.
- Any procurement to satisfy declared emergency needs.
- Restoration tax abatement credits for owner-occupied residential properties not exceeding six residential units.
- Any procurement or contract, except those for public works, valued at less than the applicable formal competitive procurement threshold.
