Housing Opportunities Study

Mayor LaToya Cantrell's Request

The City Planning Commission received a written request from Mayor LaToya Cantrell requesting the City Planning Commission to conduct a public hearing and a study to summarize opportunities for changes to the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance based on the most recent amendments to the City's Master Plan.

Housing Opportunities Study

Placing limitations on the removal of residential units from historic two-family and multi-family structures

Explore new building types such as “tiny” houses

Use of public land for affordable housing

Placing limitations on the conversion of existing residential units to non-residential use

Adjustment and possible re-alignment of bulk and area standards city-wide

Explore the redevelopment of vacant blighted properties for affordable housing

New construction of accessory structures for and/or the conversion of accessory structures to residential use

Housing Opportunities Study

Goals for the Housing Opportunities Study

The staff has developed goals for the Housing Opportunities Study based on the Master Plan. The preliminary goals include:

1. Enhance character and livability for all neighborhoods

- Preserve and protect existing supply of renter- and owner-occupied housing;
- Expand affordability of current housing stock by providing opportunities for creating mixed-use, mixed-income, and transit-oriented neighborhoods.

2. Promote equity and access to opportunity

- Increase housing accessibility for current and new residents at all income levels while enforcing and promoting fair housing;
- Promote housing opportunities that reduce disparities for the most vulnerable populations, including low-income, homeless, seniors, and families with children.

Goals for the Housing Opportunities Study, cont'd:

- 3. Reinvent housing policies and programs to support quality neighborhoods, meet the diverse housing needs of all household types, and support a range of rental and homeownership options for residents of all income levels.
 - Remove barriers to the development of affordable housing in the CZO;
 - Utilize publicly owned land and vacant/blighted properties to increase housing opportunities;
 - Leverage private redevelopment to expand the variety of housing and create equitable access to neighborhoods with high access to opportunity.

- 4. Provide housing opportunities that are responsive to the changing housing needs of current and future residents.
 - Encourage resilient sustainable housing design and infrastructure;
 - Promote supportive and accessible housing;
 - Ensure new housing incorporates community-building design and addresses site-specific and resident specific needs.
