RE: Short-Term Rental Study

Dear Bob,

It has come to our attention that the Council's 120-day completion timeline for the City Planning Commission's Short-Term Rental Study, requested in M-18-194, has put significant pressure on staff and that you have requested additional time to review materials, refine recommendations, and complete the study. Since the scope of the study is very broad and it carries great weight for the City, it does not come as a surprise that it may take longer to complete than the Council and the City Planning Commission (CPC) initially anticipated.

Therefore, in order to allow the CPC and Council to appropriately consider Short-Term Rentals, we will certainly accept the report later than originally outlined. We would appreciate transmittal to the Council no later than October 5, 2018.

Please provide public notice of this change in plans and the timeline going forward, so that we may continue our collective effort to approach the Short-Term Rental study and any subsequent legislation in a thorough, transparent, and timely fashion.

Sincerely,
