Minutes

Present: Dr. Michael Cowan, Chair; Elizabeth Nalty, Vice Chair; Rev. Don Frampton

Absent: Dr. Laura Rouzan, Secretary; Okyeame Haley

Staff: Felicia R. Brown, Executive Director

Guest: Judith S. Nadler, Government Ethics Education Consultant

At 8:50 a.m., the chair welcomed Judith S. Nadler, the consultant retained by the ERB to assist with its government ethics education program.

Following introductions, Ms. Nadler discussed her work in government ethics within the context of her current affiliation with the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics at Santa Clara University, as well as her public service as former mayor and city councilmember with the City of Santa Clara, California.

Ms. Nadler described the process by which the City of Santa Clara developed and adopted an Ethics and Values Code in 2000. In particular she stressed the importance of leadership, reflection and renewal when implementing ethics education.

The meeting adjourned at 10:05 a.m.
